Luis Tiant is the only pitcher to defeat the Yankees five times in one season since expansion in 1961. In fact, when he was 5-1 against the Yankees in 1974, he was the first to do it since 1959, when Frank Lary, Don Mossi and Cal McLish all accomplished it.

Yankee Stadium's playing field covers approximately 3.5 acres . . . the entire stadium area is on 11.6 acres. A combination of some 800 multi-vapor and incandescent lamps illuminate the field, with powers of up to 1500 watts.

The Yankees play each Eastern Division team 15 times in 1977. Baltimore, Boston and Toronto play eight games in New York, with the remaining clubs playing seven each. The Yankees play each Western Division team ten times (five home, five road), with the exception of Oakland (six home, five road) and California (five home, six road). That totals 90 games against the East and 72 against the West, equally divided between home and road.

ABOUT ONE-HITTERS

Yankee pitchers have hurled 46 one-hitters over the years, the most recent being by Catfish Hunter at Texas on May 31, 1975, in which Cesar Tovar got a 6th inning single. Bob Turley and Whitey Ford each hurled 3 for the Yankees, and both men participated in a fourth. Bob Shawkey, Rip Collins, Lefty Gomez, Vic Raschi and Floyd Bevens each threw two one-hitters, with one of Bevens' coming in a World Series. The Yankees have been one-hit 40 times, most recently on August 29, 1973 in California by Nolan Ryan, with Thurman Munson collecting a first inning single. The Yankees have been one-hit 12 times since they were last no-hit in 1958. Joe Wood and Earl Hamilton are the only men with a pair of one-hitters against New York, both of Hamilton's coming in 1913. No-hit pitcher Hoyt Wilhelm also one-hit the Yanks in 1959. Horace Clarke is the only Yankee to twice serve as a spoiler, breaking up no-hitters by Jim Palmer and Joe Niekro. In 1970, Clarke broke up three no-hitters in the 9th inning in one month, two of which wound up being more than one-hitters.

ALL-STAR NOMINATIONS . . . fan balloting began in 1970. Reggie Jackson and Paul Blair have been on the ballot in all seven years. Thurman Munson and Graig Nettles have each made the last six, and Roy White has also earned six nominations, as has Carlos May. Chris Chambliss has five.

The Yankees were the first team to wear uniform numbers regularly (1929), and their numbers have always been a source of fascination. More are retired than on any other team . . . Did you know that Joe DiMaggio was #9 as a rookie? Yogi Berra was #35? Mickey Mantle #6? Bobby Richardson #29? Roy White #48?

BAT DAY . . . The longest running Yankee gift day promotion is Bat Day, begun in 1965. The Yankees have distributed some 750,000 bats to local youngsters since it began.

Paul won game three of that series 1-0 with a home run, and the next day made a great catch in the 8th inning to preserve another 1-0 win for the series sweep . . . led the Orioles in hitting in the 1970 series, and tied the record for the most hits in a 5-game series . . . won the first ALCS game ever with a 12th inning bunt as Orioles bested Twins in 1969 . . . had a record setting five hits in the final game of that series with 5 RBIs . . . made two great catches in the 1970 ALCS against Minnesota . . . a fine hitter until a serious beaning in May, 1970 when he was struck by a pitch from California's Ken Tatum, causing serious eye and facial injuries . . . tried to bat lefthanded in 1971 but abandoned the idea, and in 1973, had one therapeutic hypnotic session in Baltimore . . . had good years at bat in 1973 and 1974 (he shared the Most Valuable Oriole award with Mike Cuellar in '74), but has been sub-par at bat in the last two seasons . . . friendly and likeable; an accomplished public speaker, and a good basketball player as well . . . has good speed and has hit as many as 26 home runs in a single season . . . hit three home runs in one game in 1970.

BLOMBERG, RONALD MARK (OF) (BLOOM-berg) #12

6-1, 200. Born on August 23, 1948 in Atlanta, Georgia. Resides in Riverdale, New York. BL. TR. Married: Mara Goldsmith 10/25/70 Children: Adam (3 mo.). College: DeKalb College.

OBTAINED: Yankees' #1 (and baseball's #1) selection in June, 1967 Free Agent Draft, by scout Atley Donald.

Ron Blomberg has been virtually out of action since June 17, 1975, when he damaged his shoulder at bat . . . although he participated in spring training in 1976, he wasn't able to make a go of it, and had surgery on April 16 for chronic bicep tendonitis in the right shoulder . . . his only 1976 appearance was on September 8 against Milwaukee in Yankee Stadium, when he went 0-2 . . . his future certainly one of question . . . at his peak physical condition, Ron was a .302 lifetime hitter, seeing action almost exclusively against right hand pitching . . . he was a hard hitting pull hitter, a good RBI man, and a power hitter who seldom struck out . . . he signed as the nation's number one draft pick in 1967 as a firstbaseman . . . passed up scores of basketball scholarships to do so . . . was converted to an outfielder, than back to first, now back to outfield, but is considered mainly a designated hitter . . . his best year was 1973, when he maintained a .400 batting average through July 4th . . . always a very popular player in New York, and a year round resident . . . became a father for the first time last November.

CHAMBLISS, CARROLL CHRISTOPHER (1B) #10

6-1, 209. Born on December 26, 1948 in Dayton, Ohio. Resides in Riverdale, New York. Married: Audrey Garvin 9/30/73. Children: Russell (2). College: Mira Costa Junior College and UCLA.

OBTAINED: Acquired from Cleveland Indians with Dick Tidrow and Cecil Upshaw in exchange for Fritz Peterson, Steve Kline, Fred Beene and Tom Buskey on April 26, 1974.

Chris Chambliss had his second consecutive outstanding season in 1976, climaxed by his pennant winning home run in the last of the ninth in the final game of the American League Championship Series . . . it will be remembered as one of the most historic home runs in baseball history, and wrapped up a series in which he set records for most hits and most RBIs . . . his regular season performance was also a thing of beauty, and he finished fifth in MVP voting to prove it . . . reached career highs in nearly every department and tied for fourth in the league in RBIs . . . hard to believe now that when Chris was obtained in 1974, great skepticism surrounded the deal . . . he was the A.L. Rookie of the Year in 1971, after just one full season in the minors, when his .342 average at Wichita made him the first rookie to ever win a triple-A batting title . . . this followed just one season at UCLA, where he set school records with 15 homers and 45 RBIs . . . hitting streaks have been a part of Chris' career. Starting in 1971, he's had yearly streaks of 15, 15, 19, 18, 13 and 19 last year. He concluded the regular season by hitting in 9 straight, and then batted safely in every post-season game to run the streak to 18 . . . his highlight moment of the regular season was a last of the ninth home run to beat Boston in Yankee Stadium on July 25, resulting in a unique curtain call from the Yankee dugout, the first time that had happened since Roger Maris' 61st home run in 1961 . . . Chris generally hits into the power alleys, and his 38 doubles in 1975 were most by a Yankee in 13 years . . . soft spoken Chris is the son of a Navy Chaplain, who traveled for much of his youth . . . Arlene Henley, now Mrs. Elston Howard, was a baby sitter for the Chambliss family in St. Louis . . . Chris played football, basketball and baseball at Oceanside High in California . . . had a 2-run single to beat the White Sox 2-1 in his first major league game . . . at no time during the 1976 season did Chris go more than two games without a hit, hitting safely in 123 games.

OBTAINED: Yankees' #2 selection in June, 1972 Free Agent Draft by scout Myron Hayworth.

Ken Clay is one of the Yankees top pitching prospects . . . the hard throwing righthander had his first full season in Triple-A last year, got off to a bad start, and then had a great second half, redeeming the Yankees faith in him . . . has played winter ball in Venezuela in each of the last two years . . . a five letter man at Glass High in Lynchburg, Virginia . . . good basketball player, who has worked as a court official in off-seasons . . . graduate of the Little League, Babe Ruth League and American Legion programs of Virginia.

DINEEN, KERRY MICHAEL (OF) #47

5-11, 161. Born on July 1, 1952 in Englewood, N.J. Resides in Chula Vista, California. Married: Renee Zuhlke 2/17/74. Children: none. College: University of San Diego.

OBTAINED: Yankees' #4 selection in June, 1973 Free Agent Draft by scout Don Lee.

Kerry has been something of a miracle worker in his two brief trips to the major leagues . . . called up before 54,000 people on a 1975 Bat Day, Kerry collected some quick hits, and quickly became a darling of the fans. He batted .364 in seven games with the Yankees before injuring himself . . . Mrs. Babe Ruth sent him a fan letter . . . then in 1976, he got the call to join the Yanks on May 21 . . . he arrived during the game, went in as a pinch runner in the 10th inning, and singled home the winning run in the 12th against Boston's Jim Willoughby . . . despite these feats and a batting title in 1973, Kerry is better established as a good defensive center fielder and spray hitter . . . missed a good part of last season with bruised ribs following an outfield collision at Syracuse . . . Kerry is part Cherokee Indian . . . he's a distant cousin of Ken Henderson.

FIGUEROA, EDUARDO "Ed" (P) #31

6-0, 185. Born on October 14, 1948 in Ciales, Puerto Rico. Resides in Bayamon, Puerto Rico. TR. BR. Married: Enilda Jimenez 11/20/71. Children: Vanessa (3), Ed. Jr. (5 mo.).

OBTAINED: Acquired from California Angels along with Mickey Rivers for Bobby Bonds, December 11, 1975.

Ed's first season as a Yankee was a rousing sussess . . . led the team in victories, tying for fourth in that department in the American League . . . also led the Yankees with four shutouts . . . Ed was 12-3 between May 24 and August 13, when the Yankees pulled away in the Eastern Division . . . hoped to become the first Puerto Rican to ever win 20 games, but fell one short when he lost his last two decisions, and was rained out on the season's final day . . . he and Juan Pizzaro have now each won 19 . . . Ed was pretty much of an unknown to New Yorkers despite his 16 wins for the Angels in 1975, when he had the fifth best ERA in the league, but by the end of the season, fans were shouting "Ed-die, Ed-die" in encouragement of the handsome righthander . . . had a long road to the big leagues . . . originally signed by the Mets in 1966, but soon released and signed by the Giants . . . served in Vietnam with the Marines in 1969 . . . Angels obtained him on June 30, 1973 in a trade for Don Rose and Bruce Christenson . . . started the 1975 season in the minors, but brought back fast, and wound up beating the champion Red Sox three times that season . . . an amazing 15 of his 16 wins that year followed Angel defeats . . . as a member of Puerto Rico's amateur champs, Ed and his teammates won a trip to New York in the early '60s to see a game in Yankee Stadium . . . Ed seemed on the way to winning the Yankees' pennant clinching game in the ALCS against the Royals last fall, and left to a standing ovation with a 6-3 lead in the 8th inning. But reliever Grant Jackson yielded a 3-run homer to Brett, spoiling what would have been Figgy's greatest moment . . . best effort last year was a 3-hit shutout over the White Sox on July 11.

50th ANNIVERSARY OF MURDERERS ROW . . . This is the 50th anniversary of the 1927 Yankees, considered by many the greatest team in baseball history. Few people realize that the Yankees went through the entire 154 game schedule that year using only 25 men.

HUNTER, JAMES AUGUSTUS "Catfish" (P) #29

6-0, 205. Born on April 8, 1946 in Hertford, North Carolina, where he resides. TR. BR. Married: Helen Overton 10/10/66. Children: Todd (7) and Kimberly (4).

OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, December 31, 1974.

Catfish Hunter is one of the premier pitchers in American League history . . . . last season he became only the fourth pitcher in this century to record his 200th victory prior to his 31st birthday, joining Young, Mathewson and Johnson . . . the year before he joined Johnson and Grove as the only American Leaguers to win 20 games in five straight seasons . . . the 8-time All-Star had an "off-season" for Catfish in 1976, but at season's end it was revealed that he was bothered by some arm trouble, not unusual for all the innings he's pitched in recent years . . . Jim's now in his 13th season, and has been a regular starting pitcher since he was 19 years old . . . Jim won the 1974 Cy Young Award and was runner-up in 1975 . . . that year, his first as a Yankee, he pitched more complete games than any American Leaguer since Feller in 1946, and pitched more innings than any Yankee since Carl Mays in 1921 . . . his 40 career shutouts lead all active pitchers in the league . . . pitched 10 straight complete games in 1975 . . . signed as a free agent in celebrated talent chase of 1974 and became a household word in America . . . the events and the change to the big city left him no less of a fine gentlemen than he has always been . . . Jim is the youngest of 8 children, and a great athlete at Perquimans High School, making All-State in baseball and football, and as a member of the 440 relay team . . . also played Little League and Babe Ruth League ball in his native Hertford, American Legion ball in nearby Ahoskie, and semi-pro ball in Wanchese . . . rooted for the Indians as a youngster, with Jim Piersall as his favorite player . . . his brothers helped his development as a player, but one of them accidentally shot him in the foot in 1964, causing some clubs to lose interest in him . . . he lost the small toe on his right foot . . . Kansas City scout Clyde Kluttz stayed with him however, and signed him, although he was unable to play at all in '64 . . . hence, he's never pitched in the minor leagues . . . A's owner Charlie Finley, feeling the need for a colorful nickname, invented "Catfish," . . . Jim first broke into fame in the 1967 All-Star game, hurling 5 innings of sterling relief before Tony Perez beat him with a home run . . . On May 8, 1968, in only the 12th home game ever played by the Oakland A's, Jim hurled a 4-0 perfect game against Minnesota, the only regular season perfect game in the American League in the last 55 years . . . helped Oakland to four division championships and three World Championships . . . has been relatively injury free, save for a broken thumb suffered in the 1973 All-Star Game when hit by a line drive off the bat of Billy Williams . . . still won 21 games that year . . . an arbitration panel declared him a free agent after the 1974 World Series over a breach of contract . . . last fall's presidential election has made Catfish only the 2nd most famous peanut farmer in the country . . . has a 110 acre farm, which his brother runs during the baseball season . . . Jim is an outstanding fielder and an accomplished hitter, 149-658 (.227) lifetime 6 homers and 51 RBIs . . . his longest winning streak as a Yankee has only been four (3 times) despite 40 wins in 2 years . . . his longest win streak even was 13 in 1973 . . . in addition to his perfect game, he has a one-hitter and five 2-hitters, the one-hitter coming as a Yankee in 1975 . . . his career high in strikeouts is 12 (twice), and his longest outing, 13 innings, was accomplished last August 27 at California (no runs, 11 hits) . . . his great control results in yielding a lot of home runs, and they seemed to hurt him more last season than in previous years . . . . . Jim signed a five year contract starting with the 1975 season.

Dick Tidrow was a key man in the Yankee pennant drive of 1976 . . . remained a dependable reliever, but also had success in his two starts . . . beat Milwaukee on June 27, hurling 7 innings, allowing 2 runs, 8 hits, one walk, 7 strikeouts . . . no decision in a start against Kansas City on July 6, allowing 2 runs, 7 hits, 1 walk, five strikeouts in 7.2 innings . . . his season highlight however was a relief stint against Minnesota on August 25, which wound up being a 10.2 inning outing, in which he allowed 0 runs, 4 hits, 0 walks and 4 strikeouts . . . his standing ovation as he departed saw his ERA drop from 2.81 to 2.41 that evening . . . Dick was also the winning pitcher (in relief) in the first game played in the "new" Yankee Stadium . . . he was a starter until 1975 when Catfish Hunter joined the Yankees, and Dick found himself in the bullpen . . . he was the Sporting News Rookie Pitcher of the Year while with Cleveland in 1972 . . . won 28 games for the Indians in his first two years . . . Indians drafted him in January, 1967, but military duty limited his progress for two years . . . tied Sparky Lyle for the club lead in relief points in 1975 . . . Yankees obtained him in big trade with Indians in April, 1974, considered very controversial at the time, and quite one-sided today . . . teammates playfully call him "Dirt" for his rather gruff appearance.
